

The Homesmith Network, LLC is seeking qualified Independent Associates/Area Sales Representatives. This is a ground level opportunity to be part of a growing National organization. The Homesmith Network, LLC is the official business entity of WWW.MYHOMESMITH.COM an online resource where consumers can quickly and easily locate LOCAL home and property service providers and suppliers. Our clients are businesses that provide home and property services, supplies and others. We are a business based upon a core set of values and believe that through our business, we can positively impact the communities we serve. Our mission is to provide a valuable service and resource to our customers, members and the public, while providing a positive and rewarding environment for all our associates.

The successful applicant will have:

- a professional appearance
- excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- can work independently within an organizational structure
- is self- motivated, ambitious and driven to succeed
- the desire to make a difference

Reliable transportation, telephone and basic office equipment, including computer with internet connection and printer/scanner, are required. Previous sales experience is helpful, but not required.

The Independent Sales Representative is expected to:

- work within a defined geographical area
- set their own work schedule and hours as appropriate to meet client needs
- develop new clients, maintain client contact, assist clients with increasing their market reach
- encourage consumer use of our website through personal contact, community outreach, social media and other appropriate means within Homesmith guidelines
- provide input to management about consumer and client impressions, questions and ways to improve the consumer's and client's experience
- provide input into how to improve the company's overall position in the marketplace

Compensation will be based upon a generous commission plan with tremendous earnings potential and opportunities for advancement.

Send your letter of interest and resume to:

nationalsalesdirector@myhomesmith.com

The Homesmith Network, LLC, an Equal Opportunity Employer

HOMESMITH is a registered trademark, all rights reserved

www.myhomesmith.com